

PRESS RELEASE

September 18, 2008

TPG RECEIVES BUSINESS & CHILDREN AWARD

The Tulare County Child Care Planning Council recently awarded TPG Consulting, Inc. with a Business and Children Award. TPG was one of two recipients of the award, given by the Council to Tulare County businesses that have child-friendly practices. The company was recognized for offering flexible work schedules and telecommuting as options for working parents, while also allowing children to come to the office with their parents when necessary.

TPG staff and their children accept the award. From L-R: Wally Hutcheson, AJ Hutcheson (age 2), Jackson Tyndal (age 19 months), Darlene Tyndal, McKayla Rodriguez (age 10), Kasia Thompson, Libby Thompson (age 19 months), and Charles Clouse, owner.

About TPG: TPG Consulting, Inc. prides itself on offering quality engineering, planning and transportation services. Since 1986, TPG has emphasized a client oriented focus, being accessible and responsive to its clients, while providing superior attention to detail. TPG has offices in Visalia, Fresno and San Luis Obispo, California, Dallas, Texas and Littleton, Colorado. Visit us on the web at www.tpgconsulting.net.